DETAILED ACTION

Specification

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:

The following guidelines illustrate the preferred layout for the specification of a utility application. These guidelines are suggested for the applicant's use.

Appropriate correction is required.

Arrangement of the Specification

As provided in 37 CFR 1.77(b), the specification of a utility application should include the following sections in order. Each of the lettered items should appear in upper case, without underlining or bold type, as a section heading. If no text follows the section heading, the phrase "Not Applicable" should follow the section heading:

- (a) TITLE OF THE INVENTION.
- (b) CROSS-REFERENCE TO RELATED APPLICATIONS.
- (c) STATEMENT REGARDING FEDERALLY SPONSORED RESEARCH OR DEVELOPMENT.
- (d) THE NAMES OF THE PARTIES TO A JOINT RESEARCH AGREEMENT.
- (e) INCORPORATION-BY-REFERENCE OF MATERIAL SUBMITTED ON A COMPACT DISC.
- (f) BACKGROUND OF THE INVENTION.
 - (1) Field of the Invention.
 - (2) Description of Related Art including information disclosed under 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.
- (g) BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE INVENTION.
- (h) BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE SEVERAL VIEWS OF THE DRAWING(S).
- (i) DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE INVENTION.
- (j) CLAIM OR CLAIMS (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (k) ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (l) SEQUENCE LISTING (See MPEP § 2424 and 37 CFR 1.821-1.825. A "Sequence Listing" is required on paper if the application discloses a nucleotide or amino acid sequence as defined in 37 CFR 1.821(a) and if the required "Sequence Listing" is not submitted as an electronic document on compact disc).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 3 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 3 recites the limitation "the discharge end ". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 4 is recites the limitation "the burner tube ". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Art Unit: 3749

Claims Rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a)

Claims 1, 2, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over US 4784600 (Moreno) in view of DE 3530683 (of record).

US 4784600 (Moreno) shows and discloses a method of generating a flame in a combustion zone of a cyclone combustion device including:

- a burner tube (13) extending into a furnace heating chamber (18) from outside of thereof;
- means for introducing fuel (see figure 1) into the burner tube;
- means for leading primary air (12) via the burner tube into the combustion zone of the furnace;
- characterized in that flue gas generated in a gas turbine (see figure 1) connected to the burner is used as primary air.

US 4784600 (Moreno) shows and discloses the invention substantially as set forth in the claims with possible exception to:

- heating a rotary kiln with a cyclone combustion device.

DE 3530683 teaches, from applicant's same fuel fired furnace field of endeavor, heating a rotary kiln with a cyclone combustion device (see the English language abstract).

In regard to claim 1, 2, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11, for the purpose of providing a suitable alternative furnace chamber and product heating means to be heated by the cyclone burner, it would have been obvious to a person having ordinary skill in the art to substitute a rotary kiln for the steam generator furnace of US 4784600 (Moreno) in view of the teaching of DE 3530683.

In regard to claim 2, since the operating temperature for a given rotary kiln would necessarily depend on numerous interrelated design concerns such as, the overall size and shape of the kiln, the desired operating temperature and/or necessary temperature for treating materials heated therein, to operate a kiln in the claimed temperature range (flue gas of the turbine is 400-800 °C.) can be viewed as nothing more than merely a matter of choice in design absent the showing of any new or unexpected results produced therefrom over the prior art of record.

Art Unit: 3749

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 3 and 12 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

See the attached USPTO for, 892 for prior art made of record and not relied upon which is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
